Dear Ms. Fry, Mr. Walker, and Mr. Lamhofer:

Please note that on March 19, 2008, Universal Mortgage and Sales, Inc. ("Universal") filed a voluntary petition under Chapter 7 of the United States Bankruptcy Code. A true and correct copy of the Notice of Bankruptcy Case Filing is attached hereto.

11 U.S.C. § 362(a) provides for an automatic stay, applicable to all entities, of, among other things, the following:

- (1) the commencement or continuation, including the issuance or employment of process, of a judicial, administrative, or other action or proceeding against the debtor that was or could have been commenced before the commencement of the case under this title, or to recover a claim against the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title;

- (3) any act to obtain possession of property of the estate or of property from the estate or to exercise control over property of the estate; [and]

- (7) the setoff of any debt owing to the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title against any claim against the debtor.

Please take further notice that the automatic stay of proceedings commenced concurrently with the filing of the bankruptcy petition on March 19, 2008. The automatic stay prevents commencement or continuation of actions against a debtor. In light of the above, all proceedings against Universal in connection with this matter are stayed.

Very truly yours,

Elizabeth C. Gianola

In most instances, the filing of the bankruptcy case automatically stays certain collection and other actions against the debtor and the debtor's property. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although the debtor can request the court to extend or impose a stay. If you attempt to collect a debt or take other action in violation of the Bankruptcy Code, you may be penalized. Consult a lawyer to determine your rights in this case.

If you would like to view the bankruptcy petition and other documents filed by the debtor, they are available at our Internet home page <https://ecf.canb.uscourts.gov/> or at the Clerk's Office, 280 South First Street, Room 3035, San Jose, CA 95113.

You may be a creditor of the debtor. If so, you will receive an additional notice from the court setting forth important deadlines.
